Thorneloe Memorial Bursaries/Thorneloe Faculty and Governors Bursaries:

Several bursaries in memory of Thorneloe students (Elizabeth Pentland, Brian Clark, Louis Larocque, Colin Elliot), as well as bursaries established by the Faculty and Governors, are awarded to students who are living in residence at Thorneloe University or who are taking a course from Thorneloe University. Preference may be given to students who are also registered at Thorneloe University. The number and amount of such awards may vary annually, depending upon funds available. Awards are made on the basis of good academic standing and financial need. Some funds are restricted to students who have resided in Ontario for twelve months prior to beginning university (OSAP policies on residence apply). Application through Thorneloe University is required, and the awards are made upon recommendation of the Provost of Thorneloe University once per term.

The Donald K. Brown Memorial Bursary:

A Sudburian for nearly fifty years, Donald K. Brown was a prominent businessman and highly respected member of the community. This bursary, donated by family and friends, is awarded annually to an academically qualified full-time undergraduate or graduate student who is a permanent resident of Northern Ontario (under the policy on residency of the Ontario Student Assistance Program) on the basis of financial need. Priority will be given to students who are in residence at Thorneloe and/or are enrolled in a Thorneloe course of study. Application through Thorneloe University is required, and the awards are made upon recommendation of the Provost of Thorneloe University once per term.

The June and Frank Culliford Theology Bursary:

June and Frank Culliford were active members of the Anglican Church in Kitchener-Waterloo, and respected members of the business community. In their memory, bursaries are awarded annually to academically qualified students who are enrolled and taking courses in the Thorneloe Bachelor of Theology programme. These bursaries, donated by family and friends, will be awarded on the basis of financial need. Application through Thorneloe University is required, and the awards are made upon recommendation of the Provost of Thorneloe University once per term.

The St. Chad-Moosonee Bursary:

This bursary was set up in memory of the pioneer members of the Anglican Church in "The Porcupine Camp" and those who built and worshipped at St. Chad's Church, Schumacher. The bursary is awarded annually to a student who is from northern Ontario within the 2011 boundaries of the Anglican Diocese of Moosonee (e.g., Timmins, Chapleau, Kirkland Lake, Cochrane, Kapuskasing, Moosonee, etc.). The bursary is awarded to students who have demonstrated financial need and are in good academic standing. Preference will be given to a student who has taken courses in Thorneloe University's programs. Application through Thorneloe University is required, and the awards are made upon recommendation of the Provost of Thorneloe University once per term.

Grace Foundation Bursary:

This bursary is awarded annually to full-time or part-time students who are within the geographic boundaries of the Anglican Diocese of Algoma. They need to be enrolled in either a Theology program through the School of Theology, or specializing or majoring in Religious Studies at Laurentian University and have completed, or be currently enrolled, in at least one Religious Studies course at Thorneloe University. Students must be actively involved in their local church, with preference given to Anglican students; applicants are required to include a letter with the bursary application outlining this local church involvement and their active Christian faith. In addition, applicants must demonstrate good academic standing and a financial need. Application through Thorneloe University is required, and the awards are made upon recommendation of the Provost of Thorneloe University.
