Alice Claridge Theology Scholarship

Several scholarships are awarded annually, each for the value of the cost of tuition for either a three or six credit course in a program of theological studies at Thorneloe University. To be eligible, students must be communicant members of the Anglican Church of Canada or a church of the Anglican Communion, and must be a student in good standing registered through Thorneloe University. These scholarships are awarded on the basis both of academic achievement and need.

Documents required: Application form, transcript, budget.

Clair Jory Wood Scholarships

Four scholarships of $300 each will be awarded to full-time or part-time students who have completed six (6) credits of study in the introductory courses in one of the departments/programs of Thorneloe University (THEA 1115), and who show the highest first class standing in that course. In case of a tie, the highest overall average shall decide the award). Students must be continuing in their program of studies to receive this scholarship.

Application not required; nomination by academic standing.

Donald K. Brown Memorial Bursary

A Sudburian for nearly fifty years, Donald K. Brown was a prominent businessman and highly respected member of the community. This bursary, donated by family and friends, is awarded annually to an academically qualified full-time undergraduate or graduate student who is a permanent resident of Northern Ontario (under the policy on residency of the Ontario Student Assistance Program) on the basis of financial need. Priority will be given to students who are in residence at Thorneloe and/or are enrolled in a Thorneloe course of study. Application through Thorneloe University is required, and the awards are made upon recommendation of the Provost of Thorneloe University once per term.

Documents required: Application form, transcript, budget.

Hillary Afelskie Memorial Bursary

This bursary was set up in memory of Hillary Afelskie, a Thorneloe University resident who was tragically killed in a traffic accident on January 4th, 2012. One bursary valued at $250 is awarded annually to a female resident at Thorneloe with a demonstrated financial need, good academic standing, and record of volunteer involvement in community, non-profit, or charitable activities.

Documents required: Application form, transcript, budget, and letter that articulates volunteer service.

The June and Frank Culliford Theology Bursary:

June and Frank Culliford were active members of the Anglican Church in Kitchener-Waterloo, and respected members of the business community. In their memory, bursaries are awarded annually to academically qualified students who are enrolled and taking courses in the Thorneloe Bachelor of Theology programme. These bursaries, donated by family and friends, will be awarded on the basis of financial need. The awards are made upon recommendation of the Provost of Thorneloe University once per term.

Documents required: Application form, transcript, budget.

Marian Charlotte Higgins Scholarship

This scholarship is awarded annually by Thorneloe University to a female student who has taken a minimum of 18 credits in any of the courses offered at Thorneloe.
